Council member Miller to begin campaign

A campaign kickoff and fund-raising reception for Oak Ridge City Council member Jane Miller will be 5 to 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Midtown Community Center, the former Wildcat Den, at 102 Robertsville Road.

The Jane Miller for Oak Ridge Council Committee will host the event, and the public is invited to her campaign kickoff. Miller was appointed to City Council in October 2003 to fill a vacancy. She is seeking to return to that seat in the Aug. 5 election.

Responsible for community and visitor relations in her position with the public affairs organization at BWXT-Y12, Miller has also been involved in the community. She has served on the Oak Ridge Convention and Visitors Bureau board of directors and currently serves on the Oak Ridge Leadership board of directors.

For the past seven years, she has taught kindergarten Sunday School at Central Baptist Church in Oak Ridge. She also chaired the Oak Ridge Chamber of Commerce Small Business Conference in 2000.

She is a graduate of Oak Ridge High School and the University of Tennessee, where she earned a bachelor's degree in business management. She is a graduate of the Leadership Oak Ridge Class of 1999 and a member of the East Tennessee Regional Leadership Class of 2003.
